

Southwest Washington Watercolor Society

Fall WORKSHOP INSTRUCTOR – Randy Hale

Sept 28-Oct 1, 2021

Randy Hale is a watercolor artist, workshop instructor, signature member, and juror. He has been conducting workshops throughout the country and with the creation of his Painted Palette Tours business, has become something of a travel specialist. For the past number of years, he's led painters to bucket-list locales such as Italy, Taos (New Mexico), the backcountry of the Colorado Rockies, coastal Maine, Bavaria, Budapest, Prague, Paris and Provence. Randy's introduction to watercolor came about as an undergraduate art major in college. Randy has also earned a graduate degree in business from the University of Denver. But his immersion in studies at California's prestigious Art Center College of Design in Pasadena, CA is where he crafted a solid foundation in composition and design. Art Center propelled him into a long and successful career in design, project management, and sales. Pitching creative concepts provided a strong foundation in working successfully with people. Over the last twenty years Randy's involvement with numerous art groups led to his serving on several boards, organizing regional and national shows, jurying art exhibitions and providing entertaining painting demonstrations. Randy's true passion has proved to be sharing his knowledge as a teacher and workshop instructor. His classes and workshops are popular, fill quickly and generate wait-lists with painters eager to join.

The Southwest Washington Watercolor Society hosts Randy Hale in a four-day workshop here September 28-October 1, 2021
9:00-4:00 each day

To register, contact SWWS at www.swswwatercolor.org

To learn more about Randy Hale and his work, visit his website at www.halegallery.com

